THE RAGLAN CLUB INCORPORATED

CONSTITUTION (2016)

Under the incorporated Societies Act 1908

FOREWORD

It should be appreciated that no code of rules governing our Club has yet achieved such perfection as to cope with every situation. Unusual incidents not definitely provided for in the rules or regulations occasionally occur. It is well therefore to remember that the rules and regulations have been framed in the belief that commonsense will prevail and that in the absence of any express rule or regulation such commonsense and flexibility will find a way to making our club more social and enjoyable for all members.

The Raglan Club Executive, members and staff must at all times comply with all New Zealand laws including the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012, the Health and Safety act, employment laws and any amendments made subsequent.

Note: An Officer of the Club refers to a member of the Executive, a member of staff or a person given authority by the Executive or Management of the Club.

1. NAME

- 1.1. The name of the Club shall be the RAGLAN CLUB Incorporated, hereinafter referred to as 'the Club'.

2. REGISTERED OFFICE

- 2.1. The registered office of the Club shall be at 22-24 Bow Street, Raglan or such other place as the Executive Committee shall from time to time appoint.

3. OBJECTS

- 3.1. The objects for which the Club is established are:-
 - (a) To establish, maintain and conduct a chartered club of a non-religious, non-commercial or non-racial character and to promote the social, recreational, sporting, educational and cultural interest of the members of the club.
 - (b) To conduct, administer and maintain a Chartered Club for its members and for such persons as are authorised from time to time in accordance with the terms of any license granted to the Club.
 - (c) To provide amenities and cultural activities and promote sport and generally provide an atmosphere where the members may meet and enjoy companionship with one another.

4. MEMBERSHIP

- 4.1. Membership of the club shall consist of Life, Ordinary, Seasonal, and Junior members who shall be persons of good repute and shall comply with the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 and any amendments made subsequent.
- 4.2. Members shall be entitled to rights and privileges as follows:
 - (a) Entry to the Club premises during such hours as may be defined or approved by the Executive Committee.

- (b) The right to hold office in accordance with the Rules of the Club.
 - (c) An equal voice in all business of the Club.
 - (d) Junior and Seasonal members will have no voice in any business of the Club and are without right to take part in meetings, elections or hold any office other than that of an adjunct.
- 4.3. Members who are employees of the Club are entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership. Those employees, who are Club members, are without right to hold any office in the Club and participation in any promotional draws will be with the approval of the Executive Committee .
- 4.4. The Club shall at all times be conducted on the basis that all members be treated as equal except as in paragraphs 4.2 and 4.3.

5. ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

- 5.1. Each candidate for membership shall be nominated, on the form provided for the purpose, in writing by two (2) financial members of the Club, who have both been members for a minimum of twelve (12) months preceding the nomination. The nomination form shall include the forenames, surname, date of birth and residential address of the candidate and an undertaking that they will abide by the Constitution, House Rules and the Bylaws of the Club. Both nominator and seconder shall be responsible for the candidate for the ensuing 12 months, and the candidate, if elected, may not nominate or second a candidate during that period. The candidate shall deposit, at the time of nomination, such sum as may be directed by the Executive Committee. The names of candidates shall be posted on the Club's notice board for fourteen (14) days prior to election.
- 5.2. Any objection lodged during the period of posting shall be considered by the Executive Committee. Election shall be by ballot of the Executive Committee meeting held after the expiration of the said fourteen (14) days.
- 5.3. An interim hospitality card may be issued (which shall remain the property of the Club) to a nominee, provided the Executive have agreed to the issue of such a card. The card extends all privileges of the club except that they may not hold office, participate in any election or members draw, or participate in any interclub tournaments or introduce visitors.
- 5.4. Once the nominee is accepted by the Club or the Executive Committee, they shall be eligible to participate in any election or members draw, and in any club or interclub tournament and to introduce visitors.
- 5.5. Should the nominee be rejected by the Club or the Executive Committee, they shall be advised in writing, and their interim hospitality card cancelled from that date. Any unsuccessful candidate shall be ineligible for further proposal for membership for one year after the date of the Executive meeting at which his/her election was defeated. All fees paid will be returned to the nominee on return of their interim hospitality card.
- 5.6. The Club may grant Seasonal or Junior memberships, at the discretion of the Executive Committee, for a period of not less than 2 weeks. The candidate must deposit such sum as may be directed by the Executive Committee and complete a form for this purpose which includes forenames, surname, date of birth, address and an undertaking that they will abide by the Constitution, House Rules and the Bylaws of the Club.
- 5.7. Seasonal and Junior memberships shall take effect immediately on approval by the Club Manager. The names of the candidates shall be posted on the Club's notice board for at least 14 days. Any objection lodged during the period of posting shall be considered by the Executive Committee who will confirm or deny membership at their next meeting.

- 5.8. Seasonal membership will not be extended to people who have been barred or expelled from the Club. Seasonal members cannot hold office, participate in any election or members draw, or introduce visitors. They may join adjuncts and participate in any club or interclub tournaments and otherwise enjoy all the Clubs facilities as full members.
- 5.9. Junior members have no voice in any business of the Club and are without right to take part in meeting, election or hold any office other than that of an adjunct, participate in any members draw, or introduce visitors. They may join adjuncts and participate in any club or interclub tournaments and otherwise enjoy all the Clubs facilities.
- 5.10. Life Membership, without payment of any fee or subscription, may be granted by the Club in General Meeting on the recommendation of the Executive, in recognition of meritorious services rendered. Notice of intention to recommend shall be posted on The Club's notice board for fourteen (14) clear days prior to the Annual General Meeting. The number of life members shall not at any time exceed two (2) percent of the total membership of the Club.
- 5.11. Ex-members who reside within 25 kilometers of the Clubs premises may not be signed in as visitors, they may apply for Seasonal or Ordinary membership.
- 5.12. If for any reasons, the maximum permitted membership of the Club is limited and for this reason the number of new candidates which could be admitted is less than the number of nominations on hand, then the Executive shall decide which candidates are to be posted on the notice board from time to time.

6. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 6.1. By Resignation.
 - (a) Members may resign their membership by letter addressed to the Executive Secretary of the Club to that effect and by paying all subscriptions owing at the date of such letter of resignation.
- 6.2. By Expulsion or Suspension.
 - (a) Members who misconduct themselves or commit offences under these Rules render themselves liable to expulsion on the majority decision of the Executive Committee. Members shall have the right to appear at and be heard at any meeting considering a complaint against them.
- 6.3. Appeal.
 - (a) Any member expelled shall have the right of appeal under Rule 24.
- 6.4. Trespass
 - (a) Any member trespassed from the Club will immediately have their membership terminated.

7. SUBSCRIPTIONS

- 7.1. All subscriptions shall be paid yearly in advance. The annual subscription shall be the sum as from time to time determined by members in Annual General Meeting or at a General Meeting called for that purpose.
- 7.2. All annual fees shall be due on the first day of August.
- 7.3. A member shall become in arrears if his/her Subscription is not paid by the 31st August of that year.

- 7.4. If subscriptions are not paid by 31st August, the member is no longer a financial member and cannot use the club facilities. The member may immediately be re-instated on payment of due subscription by the 31st August the following year, after this date the member must re-apply for membership according to the procedure outlined in Rule 5.
- 7.5. New members admitted to the Club will pay the full Annual Subscription and other fees as from time to time set at each Annual General Meeting.
- 7.6. Seasonal and Junior subscription fees are set by the Executive Committee and are paid on application by the candidate.
