- YTD Authorised Purpose % = 56.59% KPI -37.12%
- Net Surplus April $15,402, March $4,827 YTD $109,778

Aged Payables April 2024

- $54,458
- Drip Free Plumbing $6,529 - Install water tank for irrigation at Bowling Club
- Raglan Super value $1,055 - 2 months
- Maxine will put a hold on the account at Super-value for 4 weeks, we will review this.
- The 6 months rental on the container is up. It hasn't been profitable so we will send it back. The coffee machine will come inside so it's available all the time.
- With the kitchen running at such a loss we need to look at the structure of it and make some changes. Suggestions to reduce hours, reduce staffing, profit on food, options for food.

Maxine went over her proposed budget for next year.

That we approve the budget as proposed by the treasurer (Maxine Picard)

MANAGERS REPORT

- 14 new members
- Helen and Jo will be running the bowling club. Wednesday and Friday while the club is closed.

- No Adjunct raffles while we are shutdown. Raffles will be up to the outdoor bowls Adjunct.
- The bar is busy from 5.30 till 7.30, but quiet the rest of the time.
- We need to change how we operate the kitchen. We've had it in house for a year and come up with the same issues that the Club faced last time it ran the restaurant itself. Changes to be worked out for the rest of the winter.
- Gas bottles need a fence.
- We are in the process of repricing, costs have gone up.
- Pink ribbon went well. Raised $3,200 for charity.
- We need to set the phones and e-mail, so it is redirected while we are closed.
- The washing machine needs fixing. Joe will have a look at this.
- Glenn will organize staff who want to do small jobs over the shutdown.
